 We do accept business checks, made payable to Baker Justice Court.*

The following general information is not meant to constitute legal advice.

WHAT IS SMALL CLAIMS COURT?

The small claims court is for cases involving claims of less than $10,000. Cases can be decided quickly and economically in small claims court where hearings are informal.

WHAT CAN BE WON IN SMALL CLAIMS?

Small claims court can only award money (up to $10,000 plus court costs) and/or the recovery of personal property. You cannot ask the court to order the defendant to do anything, or to refrain from doing something. If you need an order to make someone do something or stop doing something, other courts are available. If you are claiming an economic loss, you must file within six years of your loss. If you are claiming for a personal injury, you must file within two years of your loss.

WHERE DO I GO TO FILE THE LAWSUIT?

If the incident happened in Baker County, OR the defendant lives in Baker County, the small claim can be filed with the Baker Justice Court. The Baker Justice Court is open to receive filings Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. (including the noon hour). We are closed on weekends and legal holidays.

HOW DO I FILE A SMALL CLAIMS LAWSUIT?

Small claim packets are available at no cost at the Baker Justice Court office or online at www.bakercounty.org. The complaint must be signed by the plaintiff in front of the clerk of the court or a notary public. You will need to bring your original claim to the Baker Justice Court. The claim must be served on (delivered to) the defendant. This is typically done by the Civil Department of the Sheriff's Office. The Sheriff's Office is required by law to charge a fee for this service. The Sheriff's fee must be paid directly to them.

WHAT MUST THE DEFENDANT DO?

After the defendant is served, an answer is required within fourteen (14) days if personally served (timeframes are longer if served by mail or alternate service). The defendant can:

1. Pay the Claim: The defendant may pay the claim in full including court costs. The claim is paid directly to the plaintiff. The plaintiff must report such payment to the court clerk.
2. Demand for Hearing: If the defendant requests a hearing, plaintiff will be notified by mail of the hearing date and time. You should bring all evidence and witnesses that you have to prove your case. The judge will decide who will receive judgment and the amount of the judgment.
3. Demand for Hearing and Counterclaim: If the defendant feels that you, the plaintiff, owe him/her money, he/she can counterclaim for the money. ORS 55.075(2). If the defendant asserts a counterclaim, the notice of the hearing time shall contain a copy of the counterclaim. Both the plaintiff and the defendant will present their cases and the judge will decide who will receive judgment and the amount of judgment.
4. Demand for Jury Trial: The defendant has a right to a jury trial if the claim is more than $750.00. You will receive, by mail, a "Notice of Formal Hearing". You will have twenty (20) days to file a formal complaint in Baker Justice Court. This complaint need not be limited to the amount of the small claim, but must involve the same controversy. You will have an additional filing fee in the amount of $55.00 if this occurs. This action will subsequently remove the case from the Small Claims docket and be placed in the Civil Docket.
5. Does nothing: If the defendant does not answer the claim within fourteen (14) days after personal service is made, you may request a default judgment. You must fill out a "Request for Default Judgment" and "Small Claims Judgment Money Award" forms. If judgment is not requested, the case could be dismissed.

WHAT HAPPENS DURING THE HEARING?

YOU MUST APPEAR AT THE DATE AND TIME ON YOUR NOTICE TO APPEAR. FAILURE TO APPEAR AT THE TIME SET WILL CAUSE YOUR CASE TO BE DISMISSED IF YOU ARE THE PLAINTIFF, OR A DEFAULT JUDGMENT TO BE ENTERED AGAINST YOU IF YOU ARE THE DEFENDANT.

PLEASE NOTE: CELL PHONES AND OTHER ITEMS ARE NOT ALLOWED IN SECURE AREAS OF THE COURTHOUSE. BE PREPARED TO LEAVE ITEMS IN YOUR CAR OR DESIGNATED HOLDING AREAS IN THE COURTHOUSE.

As the plaintiff, at trial, you have the burden of proving your case. Bring any necessary witnesses and documentation. You should appear promptly in court on the day set for the hearing. If you are unable to appear at the date and time set, you may, if you have a good reason, request one continuance. The request must be made in writing and received by the clerk at least seven (7) days before the hearing.

The judge will briefly explain the procedure to be used in your trial. If you are confused about anything he/she says, or if you have other questions, do not be afraid to ask the judge. The hearing will be relatively informal. The judge is interested in the facts of your case. Please try to be objective and always exercise common courtesy.

When the hearing/trial begins, the judge will ask all parties and witnesses to swear to tell the truth. If you are the plaintiff, you will have the first chance to tell your story, present a statement of your case and call upon any witnesses and/or present any documents or photos. The defendant will then be given the same opportunity to tell his/her story.

After the judge has heard the facts from both sides, including witnesses, and everyone has asked all their questions, the judge will decide who wins the case and the amount, if any, the winner should receive. If the judge wants more time to think about the case, he/she will tell you when you may expect a decision.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER A DECISION IS MADE?

When the judge makes a decision, he/she will fill out a judgment form identifying the winning party and their award. The losing party is then expected to pay the sum lost or to deliver the necessary property as directed.

HOW DO I COLLECT MY JUDGMENT?

A judgment is due and payable when the judgment is signed by the judge. The winning party is the "judgment creditor"; the losing party is the "judgment debtor". The court does not collect the judgment for you and will not dictate any terms of payments.

If the judgment debtor does not pay the judgment, then it will be necessary to pursue one of the remedies provided to judgment creditors under Oregon Law. Two of the most common procedures are as follows:

1. Writ of Garnishment: If you know where the judgment debtor is employed or where he/she banks, you may issue a writ of garnishment against his/her wages or bank account. Forms can typically be found at a store that sells legal documents or from the local Oregon Collectors Association. Return the completed form to the Baker Justice Court with $9.00 to transcribe the small claims case to the justice court civil docket and an additional $20.00 to file the writ of garnishment. If you want to request that service be made, please make a separate check out to the Baker County Sheriff for $25.00.

2. Transcribing a Judgment to Circuit Court: If you know that a judgment debtor owns real property, for a fee of $9.00 you may have the judgment transcribed to the Circuit Court to become a lien against the judgment debtor's real property. Simply make an affidavit requesting this action along with a Transcription of Judgment Docket Sheet and send payment of $9.00 to Baker Justice Court and $16.00 to Circuit Court.

If you receive money directly from the judgment debtor, you must report this to the court clerk. It is your responsibility to file a "Satisfaction of Judgment" with the court. These forms are available at the Baker Justice Court.

A judgment bears interest at the rate of 9% per annum unless a valid contract exists which provides for a higher rate of interest. Judgments are enforceable for a period of 10 years. If you have not collected within that time, the judgment may be extended upon filing a "Certificate of Extension".

WHAT IF I LOSE MY CASE?

If the judge decides against you and you are the defendant, you must pay the judgment along with any fees or costs to the plaintiff.

If the judge decides against you and you are the plaintiff, you lose the fees you paid to start the suit and you will also have to pay the defendant the fee he/she paid the court when the trial was requested and any other fees imposed by the judge or counterclaim that is awarded.
